

Intercultural Collaborative Learning-Channels

ICL-Channels

Learn Across Diverse Cultures

ICL-Channels is a program offering intercultural collaborative learning (ICL) courses in cooperation with six universities.

Study with international and Japanese students from universities across the world!

Intercultural Collaborative Learning

Earn credit for taking ICL courses at participating universities!

What is

Intercultural Collaborative Learning (ICL)?

ICL aims to foster mutual understanding among students from different linguistic and cultural backgrounds through “meaningful interaction” in the form of collaborative learning experiences such as groupwork and projects.

ICL courses in 6 disciplinary areas will be offered online in English and Japanese for the 2022-2023 academic year.

SDGs | Multicultural Awareness | Business Partnership/Leadership | Natural Disaster/Recovery | Japanese Culture/ Society | Collaboration with Community

Now Accepting Applications for ICL Courses

Visit our website for application information ► intercul.ihe.tohoku.ac.jp/icl/

Participating Universities

